ADULT & FAMILY

Standing Proud: Women in Uniform - Fri., Nov. 6th @ Noon. Join SDPB for the premiere of Standing Proud: Women in Uniform, Parts 1 and 2, featuring the stories of South Dakota women veterans and their experiences serving our country, overcoming challenges, and making a lasting impact on their families and communities.

Genealogy Workgroup - Sat., Nov. 7th @ 1 pm. This month we will be hearing from Lee Stroschine about his recent trip to the Family History Library in Salt Lake City. Public is welcome.

Paint & Sip - Mon., Nov. 9th @ 5:30 pm. Adults and teens aged 13 and older are invited to paint and drink hot chocolate while making wooden ornaments. All supplies are provided, including hot chocolate and coffee. Reserve your spot at the library or call 605-347-2624. No cost to attend.

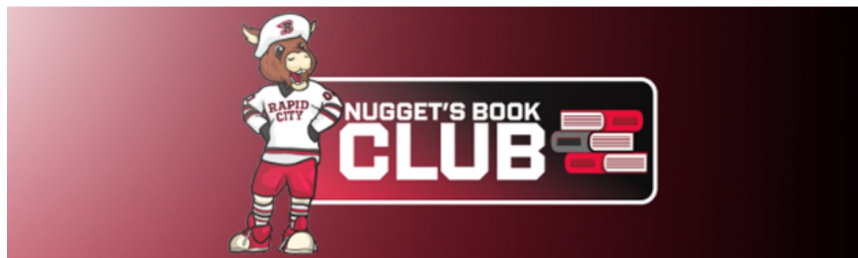

MusicSpeaks - Thurs., Nov. 12th @ 5:30 pm. 50th Anniversary of The Last Waltz. The Last Waltz was The Band's farewell concert. They were joined by some of their friends, including Eric Clapton, Van Morrison, Joni Mitchell, Ringo Starr, and the whole affair was filmed by Martin Scorsese. Come and learn about the members, why they quit touring, and why this film is often called the best music documentary ever made.

WanderWild Trail+Art Connections - Sat., Nov. 14th @ 10 am. Through guided art experiences, movement, nature exploration, and creative play, participants are invited to slow down, connect with place, and engage with the outdoors in meaningful and imaginative ways. Designed for all ages. Registration required. Visit <https://tinyurl.com/z78skduc> to reserve your space.

Puzzle Sale & Swap - Thurs., Nov. 19th @ 4-7 pm. Bring a puzzle to swap for a new-to-you challenge! No puzzle to trade? Take one home for a small donation.

Books on Tap - Thurs., Nov. 19th, 6pm @ Baymont Inn, Sturgis. Theme: "Finger Food", read any book or try out a new recipe to share with attendees. All readers 21+ are invited to join us.
