Iconic Main Street Building to Become New 'Hotel Sturgis'

Local Sturgis Businessman Rod Bradley and his wife, Cassie, recently purchased the C&D Sales building located at the corner of Main and Harley-Davidson Way in downtown Sturgis. Their goal is to renovate the building and reopen as the Hotel Sturgis.

The 22-room hotel will be considered a boutique hotel that will feature a coffee shop on the main floor. Two of the second floor rooms will be suites with balconies facing Main Street. Several of the 2nd floor rooms will also feature balconies as well as lofts with additional sleeping space. The majority of the rooms will be 12' x 20' with 14' ceilings. The building will retain many original features such as exposed brick walls and tin ceiling tiles that will provide a unique feel, popular in a boutique hotel.

According to owner Rod Bradley, the Hotel Sturgis will be another positive step in the redevelopment of downtown Sturgis.

The remodeling will begin in December. The Hotel Sturgis is scheduled to open in May 2019.

Conceptual drawings show the addition of balconies and windows facing Main Street.

Do It Best Dakota Hardware Now Ace Hardware

The former Do it Best Dakota Hardware is now operating as Ace Hardware at 2222 Junction. The new owner, Bill Bregar, currently owns Hardware Hank in Rapid City as well as Ace Hardware stores in Lead and Custer.

The new store is in the process of expanding into the former NAPA Auto Parts portion of the retail strip that is also home to Grocery Mart.

In August, Sturgis NAPA Auto Parts moved into a larger building located at 2324 Junction where they expanded their services to include Sturgis Tire Pros.

Once the expansion project is finished, the new computer system is installed and the new Ace brand inventory is in stock, the store will have a formal grand opening.

Shopping Local for Holiday Meals Saves Time and Money

During the last week of October, City staff conducted a cost comparison of the groceries needed to prepare a typical Thanksgiving meal. The comparison included two Sturgis grocery stores as well as Walmart and Safeway in Spearfish. The final results showed groceries purchased at Grocery Mart cost $6.27 less than the same items purchased from Wal-Mart in Spearfish. Of the two stores offering ready-to-serve meals, Lynn's Dakotamart was $1.03 less than the same meal from Safeway.

The comparison did not take into account additional expense for fuel and travel time needed if you were to travel to Spearfish.

Shopping local helps employ your neighbors and supports youth sports programs, local non-profit organizations, and your local government.
